

Are you using appropriate racking to store glass?

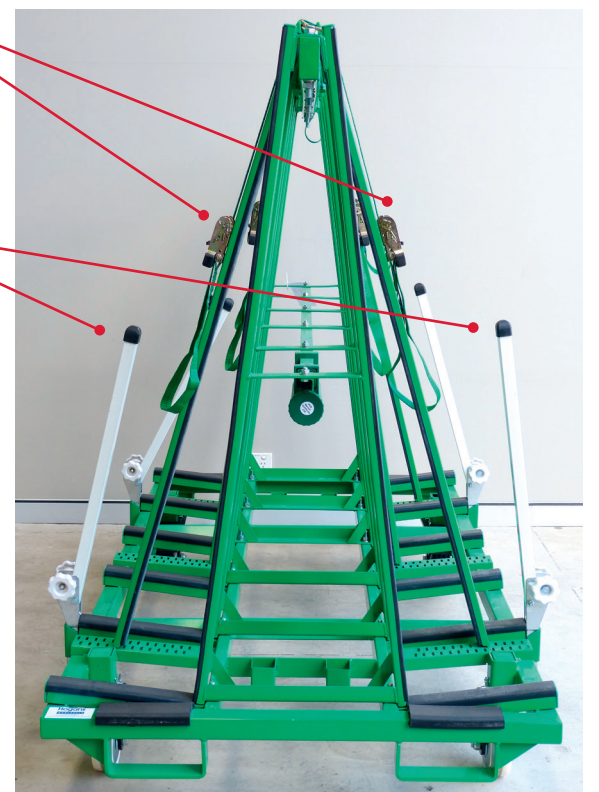

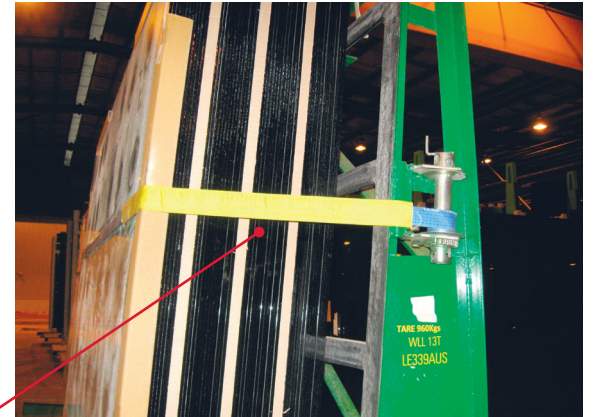

Ensure that the rack is constructed to support the weight evenly and is load rated.

If storing glass against a wall ensure that the wall can support the weight and the glass is appropriately supported.

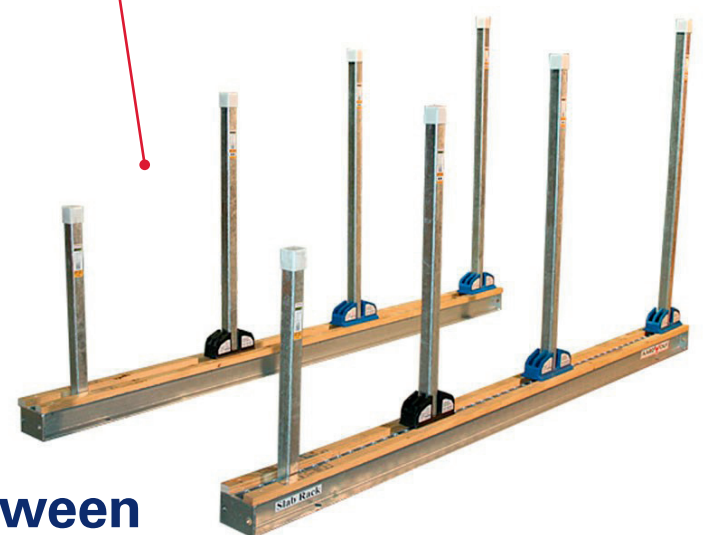

Restraints stop glass falling

Bars stop glass falling

Glass should be stored vertically between 3°–5° (4° is optimum).

Appropriate chocks on angle prevent tipping.

*Indicative measurements for illustration purposes